CHURCH AFFAIRS.

The organization of the Altura Presbyterian church has been completed by the installation of the following officers: Elders, L. West, F. A. Grace and J. D. Hopkins; trustees, F. G. Pow-vic, president; W. H. Cain, secretary; L. L. Robinson, treasurer, superintendent of Sunday school, Leonard West; assistant, F. A. Grace; secretary and treasurer, Miss Ruth Williams.

After November 1 the Sunday school will be changed from afternoon to 9:30 a. m., and Rev. Kenneth Brown will preach at 11 a. m. on the second and fourth Sundays of each month.

Mr. Brown says: "In the erection of a church for this congregation, there is no intention of placing a financial burden on the people or of assuming any indebtedness. The first unit of a small church will be built at a cost of about $1200. If one-third of this amount can be contributed by the community benefited by the church, the balance will be provided by the Presbyterian board of church erection and the Brotherhood of the First Presbyterian church."

Mrs. R. L. Daniel entertained at a charmingly informal reception Monday afternoon in honor of Miss Mabel Head. Miss Head is the general secretary of the Home and Foreign Missions of the M. E. church, South.

Pink and white carnations were placed about the apartments, adding their charm to the scene.

Miss Head made a short talk on the work of the Missionary society, and a pleasing musical program included a duet by Mrs. Adine Owen and Mrs. W. T. Owen, vocal solo by Mrs. Robert Landers, and two songs by Miss Lucille Daniel.

Refreshments were served and a delightful afternoon enjoyed by the large number of guests in attendance.

The hostess was assisted in receiving her guests by Mrs. C. S. Wright, Mrs. Empress Arrington and Mrs. C. T. Race. The young women serving in the dining room were Misses Lee Perry, Hat-tie May Loretz, Lucille Daniel and Irene Bryan.

The Women's Aid society of the East El Paso Presbyterian church will meet Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of Mrs. J. H. Williams, Hammett Place.

Mrs. C. V. Nafe entertained the third section of the Women's Aid society of the Calvary Baptist church yesterday at a charmingly appointed luncheon. Covers were laid for 16 guests.

White dahlias and red peppers formed a most attractive decoration for the table, which was set with beautiful hand-painted china.

Following the luncheon the afternoon was spent in planning the winter work of the society.

The third section of the Women's Aid society of Calvary Baptist church will give a Halloween social on Friday evening, October 28, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Barnes, 916 North Kansas street.

CARDS.

The Girls' Thursday Bridge club will be entertained tomorrow afternoon at the home of Mrs. H. E. Christy.

The Married Women's Wednesday Bridge club was entertained this afternoon by Mrs. K. S. Franklin, at the home of Mrs. H. E. Runkle.

Mrs. W. D. Howe will be the hostess for the Thursday Lunch club, which will meet this week on Saturday afternoon at her home on North Kansas street.

The Wednesday Bridge club was entertained this afternoon at the home of Miss Mabel Falvey.

The first meeting for the season of the Friday High Five club will take place Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. John L. Dyer, when a business meeting will be held.

The Thing Forgotten

(From the Italian.)
(By Caroline Duer.)

I have no sail but just the one I furled
When we drifted with the tides we knew.
I have no compass that will tell me true
There is no North but you in all the world,
And where you failed me: There my heart failed, too.

I took no count of hours you did not share,
Your coming was the sunrise—and the hue
Of Summer skies broke on an earth made new.
How can I face the night of my despair?
I have no other life save loving you.

DINNERS AND PARTIES.

"Vampires and jack-o-lanterns jolly
Bid you unto all—Hallows folly!
Hither come by dark of moon!
You cannot join the fun too soon.

The above unique invitation has been issued by Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Fraser for a masked and fancy dress party to be given Friday evening, October 28, at their home, 1210 Roosevelt avenue.

Major and Mrs. W. J. Fewel entertained Sunday at a most enjoyable family reunion dinner.

The guests included only major and Mrs. Fewel's children, and other relatives in the city, and were: Lieutenant commander Christopher Fewel and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Coles, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Fewel, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Woodson and Millard Patterson.

Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Jones entertained with a 6 o'clock dinner last evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Rowe, who will soon leave for their future home in Buffalo, N. Y.

At 8 o'clock the congregation of the Calvary Baptist church arrived on the front porch of the Jones home, completely surprising the dinner party. The guests were invited in and treated to delightful refreshments.

On behalf of the charter members of the church, Mr. Jones presented Mr. Rowe with a beautiful book, and Mrs. Rowe with a dainty hand-painted china. Misses Mabel Reed and Fay Jones assisted the hostess in serving refreshments.

MUSICALS.

Mrs. James Hunter LeNoir and Miss Bertha Stanhope will entertain on Wednesday evening, October 26, with a musicale, at the home of Mrs. LeNoir, 512 Corto street.

Miss Stanhope, who is the possessor of a beautiful dramatic soprano voice, will give a number of selections from various operas.

Among the delightful musical events of the month will be the concert to be given by Miss Helen Cooper, on Tuesday evening, October 25, at the First Christian church.

Miss Cooper is the possessor of a beautiful dramatic soprano voice, which has received a high degree of cultivation both in this country and abroad.

Miss Cooper will be assisted by Francis Moore and Edward G. Shelby, with Mrs. Helen Roberts as accompanist, and the affair promises to be a musical event of more than ordinary interest.

WOMAN'S ORGANIZATIONS.

The W. C. T. U. held a meeting on Friday afternoon at the Y. W. C. A. rooms, when considerable business was disposed of. The recording secretary, Mrs. Kittie Weeks, read a very interesting letter from the absent president, Mrs. M. L. Golden, who has been attending the W. C. T. U. convention at Waco. Mrs. J. T. Rowe gave a short talk on "The Final Judgment," from First Thessalonians, which was much enjoyed.

A vote was taken and carried that the next regular meeting should be postponed until the first Friday in November.

Miss May Campbell was the charming young hostess who, entertained the members of the Girls' Social club on Saturday afternoon, in honor of Miss Lois Smith.

The affair was in the nature of a surprise to Miss Smith, who will soon leave with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Robert Bruce Smith, for her future home in West Virginia.

The daintily appointed refreshment table held a centerpiece of fruit, while scattered over the tablecloth in graceful abandon was a profusion of autumn leaves, which had been sent the young hostess from Maine.

Miss Smith was presented with a beautiful photograph book, hand painted in autumn leaves, as a souvenir of the afternoon. Dominos and a delightful social time were enjoyed by the guests, who were: Misses Eleanor Wright, Mildred Marston, Sara Bridges, Bessie Barnes, Bernita Thomas, Augusta Markgraf, Isabel Valentine, Alicia Dempsey, Eunice Preston, Mildred Merrill.

The Ladies of the Maccabees entertained with a reunion for charter members of the order Wednesday evening at their rooms in the Fraternal Brotherhood hall.

After a business session, high five was enjoyed and delicious refreshments served.

The Sunshine Helpers met Saturday afternoon with Mrs. George Brunner, at her home on Nevada street.

The hostess was assisted in entertaining by Miss Florence Goddard, Miss Ina May Nelson and little Newcomb Brunner.

After a short business session the guests sewed on dainty aprons and other fancy articles, while Miss Goddard read aloud from Bleak House.

Miss Brunner and Miss Katharine Warren rendered two beautiful piano duets.

Ices and cake in the Sunshine colors, yellow and white, were served. Those present were: Mesdames A. G. Bush, A. M. Howland, R. F. Morris; Misses Justine Newborough, Caroline Bayne.

We Have Gained the Confidence of the Public

Through our efficient optical service, our accurate eye examinations, and from the fact that in all cases where the eye defect is of such a nature that medical services are necessary, we have no hesitancy whatever in advising those who call on us, that their eye condition is not within our scope of practice.

THE ART CLUB.

Ina May Nelson, Florence Goddard, Seamon Thomas, Katharine Warren and Ruth Kerr.

The Shakespeare Reading club will meet next week at the home of Mrs. C. H. Campbell, on North Kansas street.

The first meeting of the department of current events and literature of the Woman's club was held this afternoon in the club rooms. Mrs. Joseph L. Dwyer was chairman for the afternoon.

The International Sunshine society held its regular monthly meeting in the parlors of the Y. W. C. A. on Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock. The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. William H. F. Judd.

After the reading of the minutes by Mrs. J. J. Pearce and a report from the acting treasurer, Mrs. Guy L. Warren, the president made a little talk on the good work being done by the society and asked for the cooperation of the various charitable organizations of the city. This was followed by a few words from Mrs. Thomas O'Keefe, who spoke of the willingness of the Catholic women of the city to cooperate and an assured donation from them.

J. A. Smith gave a biographical sketch of the life of Mrs. Cynthia Westover Alden, the general president of the International Sunshine society, whom he had known in the 70s in Colorado. He spoke of her as a woman of national prominence, and also as a woman of wonderful force and executive ability. Mr. Smith's talk was followed by a delightful musical program, in charge of Mrs. J. M. Richmond.

It is hoped that every one who expects to exhibit at the fair, and their friends, will be in attendance, bringing good work and suggestions toward making this year's exhibit a record breaker.

Next Sunday there will be pen and ink sketches, posters and water colors, brought in for inspection and discussion.

Pictures With a Purpose

The ennobling effect of a good picture is really extraordinary. The trouble in most cases in the selection of pictures is that they are bought at random, from a poorly selected stock, without any definite idea as to the place they are to occupy in the home.

A Special Display and Sale of Framed Pictures

From our immense collection of framed subjects, we have selected a series of framed pictures relating to musical subjects. This range is unusually extensive and includes copies of some of the world's masters.

If you are interested in "pictures with a purpose" be sure and see this special display.

SPECIAL SALE OF ART STUDIES. In addition to the sale of pictures taking music as their theme, we are also making a special display of art studies from such noted artists as E. Aulich, Paul de Longpre, Elizabeth Genry and others.
